

BUSTED BUTLER.
Massachusetts, Minnesota, Connecticut, Nebraska, Pennsylvania, and Kansas, send greetings to the Republicans throughout the land.
Up to the hour of our going to press, the election returns, show undoubtedly that Robinson is elected governor of Massachusetts, by from ten to fifteen thousand majority.
The Republicans have, we believe gained a great victory in New York, electing Carr secretary of state. The returns indicate the success of the balance of the ticket with a Republican majority in the senate and assembly.
The Connecticut Republicans will hold the legislature and will elect a Republican to succeed Senator Platt.
Minnesota, Nebraska, and other states have gone Republican we think with the exception of Virginia. The returns however, are not sufficiently complete, to justify claims.

PITHY POINTS
Pere Hyacinthe arrived in New York Monday.
There were twelve deaths from cholera in Alexandria, Egypt Saturday.
The grand jury of St. Louis has made a big haul of democratic statesmen.
The trade dollar is going to be placed on the retired list soon after Congress meets.
Our public debt was reduced 10,304,798 during October. "Turn them rascals out."
Some of Lord Coleridge's speeches which he has made in the United States have excited surprise in England.
The work of removing the telegraph wires from the streets of Washington has been begun. They are to be put under ground.
The latest thing Congress can do will be to let the tax remain on Whisky and Tobacco, and remove the postage on newspapers.
Mahone, in a recent speech at Petersburg, Va., said that "neither politically nor socially would he hold intercourse with the Democrats."
The legislature of Iowa will be Republican by a majority of thirty six on joint ballot. This insures the re-election of Senator Allison.
The new German Evangelical Theological Seminary near St. Louis was dedicated. Delegates were present from all parts of the country.
Two thousand Orangemen at Belkirk, Ireland, have been armed with revolvers, and an encounter with the Nationalists is considered imminent.
The wool growers have organized in Washington Territory. They passed resolutions calling on Representatives in Congress to use efforts to restore the late tariff on wool.
Governor Crittenden's reply to the memorial of citizens of St. Louis is generally commended, chiefly because the Governor dodges the real point of the appeal to which he replies.
The fierce O'Donovan Rossa declares that if England does not surrender Ireland to the government of the Irish people, the city of London "will be in ashes before long."

It is stated that fourteen colored people have recently removed from Saline to Johnson county, on account of persecution to which they were subjected by their Bourbon neighbors.
Influential Liberals of England declare that they will persist in a policy of absolute and unfaltering justice to Ireland, but will stand no nonsense about the maintenance of the Union.
President Arthur inclines to the belief that if internal taxation is to be still further reduced, the tax should be removed from spirits and tobacco, but he has not yet decided to make such a recommendation to Congress.
A table published in the redette shows that twenty-eight States and one Territory, with a population of nearly forty millions, and a representation of 238 members of Congress, have sustained the petition of Mexican veterans for a pension.
It is said that a brother of Gen. R. E. Lee years ago killed the grandfather of the Ford boys, who subsequently suppressed the James gang.
The fact that the criminal classes in all the large cities of the country belong to the Democratic party, and are relied upon to keep that party in power, should be seriously considered by all respectable people.
The state board of health, require a complete registration of all physicians in the state, regardless of the clause in the state law which refers to an exemption of physicians who have an established practice of five years' standing. The members of the state board claim that under the state law no physician can practice without having first obtained a certificate, and that certificates will only be issued to physicians who can produce diplomas from schools in good standing.
Governor Crittenden has issued the annual Thanksgiving proclamation, which is as follows:

STATE OF MISSOURI,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.
In obedience to custom and to token of gratitude to the Allwise source of every good for the manifold blessings bestowed upon us during the past year.
I, Thomas T. Crittenden, governor of the State of Missouri, do hereby designate Thursday, the 29th day of November, as a day of thanksgiving. In pursuance of the request of the president of the United States, I recommend that the people rest from their accustomed labors on that day, and that they assemble at their respective places of worship and render thanks and praise to Almighty God for that manifestation of Divine favor which has preserved us from pestilence, and blessed us with peace and prosperity, and devoutly implore a continuance of His mercy.
In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the state of Missouri. Done at the city of Jefferson, this 24th day of November, A. D., 1883.
THOS. T. CRITTENDEN.
By the Governor,
MICHAEL K. McGRATH, Secy. of State

Cholera has appeared in Mecca. Advice from China are warlike. The French iron clads are under sailing orders.
The Michigan crop of winter apples is a failure.
There were 195 failures in the United States last week.
Mary Churchill is "at home" to friends (in St. Louis).
Vaccination is now said to be a success for yellow fever.
The 29th inst. has been fixed as a day of National Thanksgiving.
Phil. Sheridan is now general of the armies of the United States.
The dispute between France and China will end in bloodshed.
Robinson will have a majority of 17,000 over Butler. Mark that down.

During the year 19,000,769 acres of public land and 399,235 acres of Indian land were disposed of.
The Liverpool markets show a better feeling. All cereals show slight advance with moderate demand.
Senator Vest thinks it would be folly to nominate the old Democratic ticket, but nevertheless he would vote and work for it, which would be more folly.
Benjamin Craig, a lieutenant in the United States army, a son of General Craig, of St. Joseph, died in Southern France Friday night, attended by his mother and sister.
The United States Treasury has in its strong box $209,000,000 in gold. Brother Dana, in his desire to "turn the rascals out," doubtless desires the gold left in. How long will it take to scatter it when the hungry crowd gets in?

"The Republican party of the nation," Senator Frye, of Maine, says, "is in a much better condition to-day than it was nine months before Garfield's election. The trouble is people forget. The Republican party will win in 1884."
A Democratic worker having captured a fresh recruit from the old country, was urging him to vote the Democratic ticket. Pat fought shy, but at last inquired: "Do you vote against the government?" "Sure we do that, every time," was the reply. "Thin I'm with yer."

The missing St. Louis girl, Mary Churchill, was found Sunday in the insane asylum, near Indianapolis, where she had been taken to do laundry work. Thomas J. Gallagher, sporting reporter of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, has been at work on the case for over a month, and at last traced the missing one to the above mentioned place. She returned home with her father.
